ACKNOWLEDGING SUNDAY REVERENCE

Sunday is the day set aside for us to worship and praise our God. Sunday is the day that the Patriarch meditates on the Word, delivers the Word and reflects afterwards. This is not the time to present him with personal or business matters.

Should you have a personal or business matter you would like to discuss with the Patriarch, please schedule an appointment through his Secretary, Rev. Wanda Outlaw.

We are thanking you in advance for respecting this policy.

RESPECTING THOSE IN AUTHORITY

“Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God.”—Romans 13:1

The Patriarch, through the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit, has appointed certain individuals to leadership positions. He has empowered them to manage certain ministries and to make decisions. Every organization has protocols and processes that must be followed by its members. This insures order and diminishes confusion.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding a ministry, please take it to the person who has been given authority to manage that ministry. We must RESPECT that person who has been granted such authority.

Please DO NOT come to the Patriarch with your questions, to seek a different answer.

Please HONOR AND RESPECT this policy.

Full bulletin, monthly calendar, birthdays, announcements and flyers can be found online at www.ImaniTemple.com. Please note that all Bulletin Announcements are due to the Bulletin Committee on Sundays (for the following week announcements). Also, all ministries and/or individuals are responsible for providing their own events/announcements (folded) for insertion in the bulletins.
